The various works comprising The Formatrix Curriculum stand independently as edifyingly educational entertainment for everyone to enjoy. The Curriculum is otherwise intended to provide emerging Catholic media stewards with a curriculum of texts serving as a finishing school of spiritual and professional formation. Comprised of an increasing collection of literary and prospective media works created by the author, each incorporates The Formatrix Criterion Paradigm. The Paradigm (which means a perfect "pattern" or "example") is comprised of seven faith and conscience formative, creation stewardship-oriented teaching commands given us by Jesus Christ. The term "Formatrix" is a name the author was inspired in 1988 to develop (not knowing that it pre-existed) by combining the terms "form", as in "to shape", and "matrix", which is defined as "womb". It is my intent to employ this title to honor the Mother of Christ as she who with the Holy Spirit forms us into the likeness of Christ, even as it is written- "But we all, with open face beholding as in a (mirror) the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord." 2nd Corinthians 3:18
