Come romp, laugh and learn and do some "Raddyawesome" moves with Remmington the Wheaten Terrier! The Adventures of Remmington the Dog is a children's book designed to promote positive values. Values such as trust, friendship, responsibility, loyalty and sharing are explored through a Soft Coated Wheaten Terrier named Remmington. Through his adventures with his friend Buddy the author weaves stories that demonstrate behavior choices to promote the practice of positive values daily. The interactive nature of the story is intended to stimulate a dialogue between reader and listener building communication skills at an early age. The nature of the story serves as a foundation on which a child, with the guidance of the reader, can learn the skill of communicating and understand the importance of positive values. The stories of Remmington begin the process of developing life skills that will blossom into positive behavior growth and happiness for a child. We invite you to join Remmy, Buddy and Mr. Gator in their "Gator Bowl Smacks" and "Raddyawesome Moves." They are friends you will not forget!! Throughout the author's successful career in education her work has always focused on children's need to develop a strong foundation of positive values. Her experience has validated that high achievement and overall scholastic success stem from a positive base. This foundation is set during the formative years, ages one through seven. Extensive studies have shown that spending time reading with a child can bring about a well rounded, happy student. Through the Adventures of Remmington, children can take their first steps in understanding the importance of positive behavior as they communicate with the reader about topics that will help them build a strong value system.
