Everstar (Vivatera) (Volume 3) Candace J. Thomas

With the loss of Reynolds, Naomi retreats with Taren to the safety of Linnonbury and learns the deep histories of Parbraven and the demands the Vivatera will make of her. None but she possesses magic powerful enough to prevent the UnderGod Shon from escaping to the surface, but using it will cost her life. As the remaining daughters of Prolius return to Southwick and the origins of their magic, Sharrod prepares to open the gate to the Underworld, capturing their stones one by one. It is left to Naomi and her friends to prevent the utter destruction of the living world, but Taren is determined to save her at all costs. However, not even his love is strong enough to defy the will of the gods nor overcome the combined magic of the six elemental stones, everything that Naomi is, the Everstar.
