Korean national park campgrounds are situated near beautiful landscapes of blue sea, sandy beaches, waterfalls, towering forested mountains, and dramatic rocky pinnacles. In recent years, camping has become a favorite Korean vacation trend. As a result, national park campsites are well tended and safe, with camping fees that are easy on the pocketbook. If you want to escape the concrete jungle, be closer to nature, and travel affordably, Camping in Korean National Parks answers all these needs and more. This fully illustrated guidebook contains:

descriptions of all twenty national parks and their campgrounds;
over 250 color photographs;
practical information, from facilities and fees to emergency contacts;
easy-to-follow campground directions and maps;
details on nearby tourist destinations.
