Assured that Leon is no longer a threat, Greg and Evan begin building their new lives together as not only Pastor and First Lady of Jerusalem Missionary church but as husband and wife. Still basking as newlyweds, Greg and Evan are determined not to let anything or anyone distract them from their love, their faith, and raising their baby. But the bliss is short lived when the murder of a teenager rocks the church and their community with implications that a larger conspiracy is at hand.

But the closer that Greg gets to exposing the conspiracy behind the young man's murder, the more obvious it is that the case is anything but simple. Evidence leads him to the higher echelon of those in the community who hold more power and authority than he could have imagined with even deeper ties to his enemy than he could fathom. It is then that Greg is forced to reconcile his calling as a Pastor and his former career as a policeman to find out the truth. But the truth may be darker than expected when this Pastor is forced to fight for his family, his church and ultimately his life.
