What was I? I lived a lesbian lifestyle as a male impersonator for twenty years. I can remember as early as first grade, I had fantasies of being sexually involved with my school teacher. I was young and didn't fully understand what sex was, but I knew I had a problem. I became attracted to girls in my class but couldn't tell my secret to anyone because I knew I should be attracted to boys. I was confused and afraid. I am human. I had an identity crises and I escaped the gay lifestyle. A LETTER TO THE CHURCH/ A WITNESS FOR THE WORLD...PEOPLE ARE SUFFERING IN SILENCE... When Jesus suffered and died on the cross, He died for the homosexuals too. People fear the unknown, and it's easy to judge something or someone when there is lack of understanding. There are those who will say, I was born this way. God made me this way. Yet there are those who seek change and are willing to be changed. I was that person. All it takes is a willing heart and a made up mind, a little faith and a yes to God. He will transform you from the inside out. My Pastor and church stood with me in faith, as I began my journey overcoming same-sex attraction. To the gay community, I will say Jesus loves you so much that He can and will restore your true identity. To the church, I will say give them a chance to experience the freedom that can only come from Christ our true Savior.
