Trauma, isolation, courage, love. . . Anxious Love

Hopeful about his future after overcoming loss, Ryan Ware is living his dream life as a first round draft pick. He's enjoying every crazy minute of fame, fortune, and gorgeous women.

Despite being the most sought-after writer in romance, severe anxiety keeps Leah Jones isolated. Having a regimented life keeps the triggers at bay that could put her back in the hospital, perhaps permanently.

A chance meeting in New Orleans, Leah's brown eyes capture Ryan's heart, and he vows to learn more about this reclusive beauty.

Can Leah's anxieties withstand Ryan's crazy life? Can Ryan learn enough about real love to be the right man for Leah?

Anxious Love contains explicit scenes of a sexual nature and is not suitable for readers under 18 years of age.

"Great storytelling great character building with real likeable characters" - Donna Coates

"This was intense, but awesome." - Eyvette

"This was a really confident, sure, love story. I love flawed characters - especially when their flaws are based in something real." - D.C. Coleman
