OOPS! You just sank more company money into a performance strategy that doesn't work!

In these strained economic times when every penny counts (and demands accountability) you can no longer afford to invest in the financially flawed activities typically associated with . . .

Mergers & Acquisitions

Downsizing

Stretch goals

Performance Appraisal

And you really have to STOP . . .

Promoting people that nobody likes

OVERRATING smart people

Upsetting everyone with Employee of the Month programs

As the founder of a behavior-based process that has revitalized companies around the world, Aubrey C.

Daniels has repeatedly witnessed the 13 most universally used, but ineffective management tactics.

Businesses have been wasting time and funds on the same tired approaches for years. Now Daniels reveals
