He Was Their Beloved Kelly J. Sheridan

This the story of Paul P. Sheridan, Detroit's toughest, fairest, and hardest working police officer of the 20th century. With detailed background on his history and the history of Detroit, the city he would call home and raise his 12 children, Paul Sheridan was a unique character in some of the defining moments that shaped Detroit from pre-WWII to the 1967 race riots. Beloved for his fairness and his willingness to do anything he would ask his fellow officers to do on behalf of public safety and justice, Paul is still a legend in the Detroit Police Department.
