When freelance writer, Jayla Bell writes a letter to erotic filmmaker Dustin King, she never expects that the letter will reach him, much less change her life. The night she receives an invitation from him to travel to Bali, she is clueless as to what awaits her in the foreign land. Dustin King has spent his life building The King and Company to be the name associated with releasing artistic, erotic films. When he receives Jayla's letter, her passion moves him to invite her to Bali and he looks to her as the key to preserving his legacy. When Jayla and Dustin meet, they soon realize that their passion is not limited to writing and film. With love and legacy on the line, will Jayla and Dustin solidify their bond or will the decisions they make tear them apart?
