Haggai & Friends - Sixty-six Perspectives on Stewardship Patrick G. McLaughlin

From the foot of the cross to the foot of the throne, God wants us to grow and become wise and generous managers of all He has entrusted to us. Each of the 66 books of the Bible contains a stewardship principle, but none of them have as much clarity about God's perspective on this issue than Haggai. His prophecy is as up-to-date as tomorrow's Wall Street Journal. Obedient Owners wisely manage invest, and utilize all of their resources according to the will of The Owner. God wants our attention and a primary way that happens is with our check books, our finances, and our resources. This major life lesson from a minor prophet and his friends has a very critical message for all segments of our society and culture. Five times the prophet asks us to "consider our ways." Obedient Owners live in a way that honors God with their time, their talent, their treasure, their relationships, their families, their mission, their call in life...with everything. If stewardship is everything we do after we say we believe, then Haggai and Friends will challenge you toward Obedient Ownership.
