Electricity (Start-Up Science) Claire Llewellyn

Introducing children to the power behind their favorite gadgets, an explanation of its source and both how and why simple circuits are made and broken

Encouraging children to think about the many different electrical appliances we use in our homes and schools every day, they learn to distinguish between an appliance that uses mains electricity and one that runs on batteries. Electrical circuits are explored in detail and children are encouraged to make their own circuits. Other chapters include "Lights and Light Bulbs" and "What Went Wrong?"
