What is a 5-D Stereogram? A stereogram is a computer-generated image that "pops out" of the paper as if it were a Multi-Dimensional object. In order to see this image, however, the stereogram must be viewed in a certain way. How do you see the hidden 5-D stereogram image? Hold the art close to your nose so that it appears blurry. Relax and stare at it. Make believe you are looking "through" the art. Slowly move it away from your face until an image "pops out" and becomes perfectly clear. The time it takes to see the image can vary, so don't get impatient! Each page of the artwork has a hidden image in it, accompanied by a poem. Experience a truly astounding form of interactive art!
