Do you still have your grandmother's old Betty Crocker cookbook? What if it contained secret messages that changed everything you were taught about your identity? For Kate Miller all is perfect. She is falling in love with the ideal man while advancing in her professional career. Then her neat and ordered life crashes. She receives a strange email from her deceased grandmother. Coupled with this, her apartment is burgled and her cookbooks stolen, especially the one she was instructed to preciously guard. After hiring a quirky private detective she goes on a quest that leads to an impossible truth. This romantic/thriller is interlaced with memories of tastes, smells and laughter in the kitchen, and how a grandmother lovingly prepared a young girl to face enormous challenges.
