The Fire Within: A Journey into the Region of the Seven Dimensions and the Ten Senses Michael Gailey

Though fiction, THE FIRE WITHIN explores the mysteries of mystic or spiritual perception. What is second sight? And how does it work? What other senses do we have beyond the physical five? Does everyone have such faculties or only "special people?" THE FIRE WITHIN assumes such mystic faculties are real, explains them, and then uses them to explore the spiritual realm of the Seven Dimensions and unmask a particular spirit and her brood that haunt, enslave and torment their human victims -- maybe someone you know. The Ten Senses are not a contrived literary gimmick, or some arcane occult secret, but appear throughout the Bible. The term "Ten Senses" was first introduced by Christian mystic and writer George MacDonald, whom C.S. Lewis regarded as his master. Indeed, just beyond the reach of our natural senses is a place of dreams and visions, fantasy and imagination, good and evil. It is real -- more real than the narrow slice of reality that we can weigh and measure. But, unless our spiritual senses are awakened, we perceive it only vaguely, as if veiled behind a curtain rarely parted by a chance breeze, leaving us with fleeting glimpses of Heaven and Hell and the realms between them. Reading THE FIRE WITHIN, you will learn about the Ten Senses and much more!
