When the Universe Throws a Curve Ball: How a mom entrepreneur went from disappointment to living her passion Tisha Marie Pelletier

On course to achieve her carefully scripted life; a great job, loving husband, perfect house to raise her two future children all before the age of 30, Tisha Marie Pelletier was thrown a curve ball. For a woman who had carefully planned and achieved every goal she had pursued since a young age, Tisha was about to test her core beliefs as more curve balls were about to be thrown. Tisha shares her personal philosophy about business and life on the often humorous journey that got her where she is today; enjoying her family, her business and all the endless possibilities life has to offer.
