Varghoss lives a lonely, tortured life under his stepfather, the king. He is the prince and true heir, but no one in the castle would dare to befriend Varghoss, lest they risk incurring the king's wrath. Friendless, Varghoss has only his dreams of a strong, handsome, alpha male to comfort him. Still, he imagines that he will never know the touch...or the love that he longs for. But when the man he's seen in his nightly visions suddenly appears in the woods while Varghoss is on patrol, the wheels of fate begin to turn, and it's all Varghoss can do to hang onto his own life as his world turns upside down. Varghoss learns that the man from his dreams is Ulfvaldr, the leader of the shifter Wolf Tribe. When Ulfvaldr kidnaps Varghoss, hoping to incite a war for revenge with Varghoss's stepfather, Varghoss must make a choice. Will he follow his desire for Ulfvaldr and help him take his kingdom from his stepfather? His choice leads him down a dangerous path of battle, lust, and ancient magic. Varghoss will discover more about himself, who his parents truly were, and his kingdom than he ever thought possible. Claw and Crown, the first of its series, is a full-length, 43,000 word romance novel. Follow Varghoss as he embarks on a sword and sorcery adventure that could cost him everything or win him love, a child, and the only chance he has to learn who his parents really were and the true history of his ancient, Viking kingdom.
