Soaring Above The Flames: A Spiritual Battle for Peace, Purpose and Power Ann Ansah-Grant
Fleeing the prying eyes of the media after a humiliating scandal, Selah Brown's outrageous grandmother, a former Jazz legend, unwittingly relocates Selah and her abusive mother to a demon infested rural town in the middle of nowhere. Both of Selah's matriarchs have severe substance abuse problems and denounce Christianity making life contentious as Selah is certain there is a God. Her declaration of faith echoes through hell provoking the evil demon commander, Anarchiam, to blow his battle horn. This commences a spiritual war in Selah's life that she is ill-equipped to fight. Enter an Evangelist named Able Shreeve who comes to spread the Gospel amidst great opposition from the town's corrupt officials. Will he become Selah's shining light in the darkness? Heaven rejoices at Selah's declaration and sends its own angelic army with swords forged in the fire of the Holy Ghost to protect this special girl who possesses an astonishing gift that could change the entire world...if she wins both the battle and the war.
