The New Zealand Bed & Breakfast Book: Homes, Farms, B&B Inns (New Zealand Bed and Breakfast Book, 12th ed) James Thomas

This comprehensive travel guide offers the best in private homes, farms, and guesthouse accommodations found throughout beautiful New Zealand. As a detailed directory, it lists more than 400 private residences and inns. Each listing is written by the host and offers insight into the history, scenery, and personality of the residence. Also included are telephone numbers, types of accommodations available, prices, nearest towns, and directions. The authors have divided New Zealand into geographical regions and have included a map of each region. The homes are listed as they occur on a southward journey, making it easier to locate unfamiliar place names and to find specific areas in one region. The inns and residences in this book offer a diverse range of accommodations, from homely to luxurious, but they all have one thing in common - superior hospitality. Many entries include detailed line drawings of the bed and breakfast itself, illustrating the charm that New Zealand has to offer. The warm, friendly individuals who open up their homes to overnight guests are eager to share their passion for their country and strive to make visitors feel as comfortable as possible.
