The author is a domestic violence survivor who for years was plagued by depression from the memories of abuse and family violence due to untreated mental illness suffered by her father.

But for a brief period, just at the right time in her life, a miracle dog transformed the family and broke the cycle of family violence.

This is a true story of a true miracle, not an inspiring embellished story. It really happened. She also helps readers understand how certain events can change you and how her faith in God was reaffirmed when witnessing the miracle of healing dogs. For anyone struggling with dysfunctional family members, domestic violence, emotional abuse, elder abuse and all of the phases that a dysfunctional family goes through, this story will inspire you and help you understand that sometimes help can come from the most unexpected places. You are not alone and there are alternatives. Forgiveness, is possible through faith and understanding.
