Unthinkable (Undeniable) (Volume 1) M L Preston

Two years post college, straight-laced, hardworking, Amaya Davis is making waves in the male-dominated sports marketing industry. Thanks to an abusive relationship, she's sworn off men; so she buries herself in work and her dreams keep her writhing in pleasure. But a chance encounter at an art gallery opening finds Amaya face to face with Nicholas Hansen again. He's the star of her dreams, and he awakens a desire deep within her. They decide to partner together in business and in the bedroom, the boardroom, the barn and anywhere else they can break away to be together. But will Amaya's insecurities and distrust separate these two or will Nicholas show her how to overcome her past so they can have a future?
