AMEN Arise, Bride of Christ Here on earth, more than ever before, darkness finds humankind yearning in pain, searching for refuge from a world bound by all that's not understood. Could it be humankind has indeed reached a "Mark," laid unto time; calling and illuminating a dark history of impasse from seemingly inescapable cycles? As humankind debates: the existence of God, Satan, Christ and the return for His Bride—And while the Church's mainstream focus remains on the coveted way of tradition, standing atop its massif of proclamation, in that which is perceived from all foretold; is it possible, Satan is acutely primed, having found his way through? Is it conceivable, he could now walk the earth in certainty of victory in the most impossible quest known unto all existence? Could he have actually succeeded in securing a concealed path of annihilation for the Church? "Amen: Arise, Bride of Christ," is the profound dissection into a long-existing breach, as it continues to deliver phenomenal consequence unto The Kingdom of God. There has been much in the heralding of great change approaching. "Allotted Ones" have received there is more, knowing something is amiss. "Amen" boldly bestows sovereign counsel through an unforgettable memoir of love, however releasing, the undeniable indictment of great mercy come due for oh, so many. Who has eyes to see? Did you see this coming—"That the 'Ones,' which are seen as nothing; are the very 'Ones,' lighting the way from impasse? The Call from all before; leading you out, bringing you in, returning unto the unforsakable eternal —LOVE
