The salaries of public relations professionals who have earned their Accreditation in Public Relations (APR) are at least 20 percent higher than those of non-accredited practitioners. So you want to be an APR? Well, then this workbook is written for YOU. Sure this workbook's all about passing the APR exam. But wait, there really is more! This workbook is designed to be your timesaving safety net to hang onto during the months ahead as you go through the professional examination process. Through this workbook, you will achieve: - A sure-fire plan for your studies that will keep the information you need in your head, not on the pages of a book; - Demonstrated tips for successfully passing the Readiness Review; - A dramatic increase in your APR Written Exam score; and - A solid understanding of the professional competencies you possess NOW and an idea of the skills and strengths you will want to develop as you plan to advance your public relations career.
