The Wigtown Sketchbook 2015 Shoo Rayner

Sketchbook Diary of the Wigtown Book Festival in Dumfries and Galloway, Scotland in 2015 by official festival artist, Shoo Rayner, the author of over 200 books for children and well-known YouTube Drawing instructor and presenter.

Shoo spent the tail end of a glorious summer, sketching the goings on at the world famous Wigtown Book Festival, as well as performing for children, showing how to draw and reading from his children's books.

The Sketchbooks is a souvenir keepsake to remember just some of the wonderful events from the 2015 festival.

The original edition was crowd-funded on KickStarter.com

"Where is Wigtown? Wigtown lies in the hearts of all those who find it and keep returning for the last days of summer, to meet, talk and listen - making new friends and filling themselves with new ideas to last them through the coming year. This sketchbook is filled with images that were all made "live" while listening to author sessions, or while talking to the people I drew. This book is really about those people and their ideas."
