Party time (My first reading books) Carol-Anne Fisher, Pilar Ramos

Emma wakes up early in the morning and finds that all her friends are busy helping to prepare the street party. She helps Daddy, Andy and Julie to make the kites and plays all the games with her friends. This way, she soon learns that competing can be fun. To win the "Musical Chairs" game she has to run faster than all the other children and that her kite can fly higher than the rooftops and as high as her friend's kite.
