Redemption Alley Juan L McCall

Redemption Alley follows the lives of three people with differing spiritual destinies Cleophas Jedidiah Pettibone aka C.J. was born into a family of preachers. C.J. had a great adviser and guide into becoming a preacher in his father, Rev. Jasper Pettibone. He became a successful pastor of his own church. After realizing some of the carnal side of the profession and bad choices, the crumbling of his marriage and the abandonment of his family, he found himself in need of redemption. Tamara Baker, found a love for doing hair and brought to fruition a successful business with the help of her loving mother. She witnessed the shortcomings of preachers in her life; decided in her words that she could not “do church”. Her mother’s relationship failures and consequent addiction caused their once close bond to deteriorate. Tamara found she was in need of redemption. Byron “Butta” McClendon was a young man who grabbed life and lived on a sports pedestal. When the stadium lights were turned off and the real world were staring in his face. Butta decided to get involved with the seedy and illegal business venture with his friends. Meeting his deadbeat father and facing life threatening events, “Butta” found he was in need of redemption. The lives of these three intertwined then descended into places that made it difficult to realize their destination. You will follow then into the depths of destruction and arrive with them to claim their victories. This happens because there is a “Redemption Alley”
